Marysville is abuzz with a weekend of Jazz and Blues

Some of Australia's leading jazz and blues artists including The Black Sorrows with Joe Camilleri, Renee Geyer plus a huge lineup of top performers will take the stage at the 2018 Marysville Jazz and Blues Weekend.

With more than 40 artist performances, spread over 3 days the 2018 Marysville Jazz and Blues Weekend is sure to attract an even larger number of visitors than last year.

Now in its fourth year the weekend has quickly cemented its place on the music lovers' calendar. Last year more than 2,000 visitors came to soak up the jazz and blues atmosphere throughout Marysville's cafes, restaurants and bars with many settling in for the weekend and longer to enjoy both the music and the sheer beauty of the Marysville region and the Yarra Ranges.

Only a 90 minute drive from Melbourne, via Healesville and through the spectacular tall trees of the Black Spur, Marysville offers a stunning backdrop for three days of jazz and blues in the "Mystic Mountains".

The Marysville Jazz and Blues Weekend runs from Friday 19th to Sunday 21st October 2018. For ticket information, the line-up, accommodation and to learn more about Marysville and district, visit marysvillejazzandblues.com.au.

The 2018 Marysville Jazz and Blues Weekend is proudly supported by the Murrindindi Council, Marysville and Triangle Foundation and the Lions Club of Marysville
